Before editing the page, I just wanted to see if there would be agreement for starting a neoaphorisms and/or protoaphorisms page to record aphorisms which have recently entered into our vocabulary and to propose new aphorisms (such as at Wiktionary:Protologism for single words).

Also, I think we could use an "Other Categorization" section (perhaps under which the above could fit). Brettz9 13:59, 24 May 2005 (UTC)
